Your rights may be affected. You should review the related documents carefully and discuss them with your attorney, if you have one in this case. If you do not have an attorney, you may wish to consult one.

If you want the court to consider your views, you or your attorney must file an objection or other response not later than 14 days before the hearing date. If you mail your response to the court, you must mail it early enough so the court will receive it on or before the deadline stated above. You or your attorney should also attend the hearing. If you or your attorney do not file a response or attend the hearing, the court may decide that you do not oppose the relief sought in the motion and may enter an order granting the relief.

You may check the status of the hearing by reviewing the calendar at the Clerk's Office or the online calendar at the court website, www.hib.uscourts.gov.
